

Evans AV Staging Ltd is a Live Events and AV Staging Company based in Bristol, for over 30 years.

We are now looking to expand our team and continue to grow and develop our business.

The Job

We are looking for an Audio Visual Technician for our Live Events and dry hire business.

The successful candidate will have great technical experience with a skill base across all aspects of AV equipment.

The candidate should be ambitious and is able to use own initiative to solve problems and keen to learn about new technology

Responsibilities and Duties

As an experienced AV Technician, your duties will include: -

Working with in house managers and our clients account managers.

Supervising junior crew and freelancers.

Preparing & Checking & Loading equipment.

Delivering and Setting-up AV Equipment, Operating and /or working on Live Events and our dry Hire rental business

De-rigging and checking equipment back into the warehouse

Qualifications and Skills

Have a proven in-depth understanding of AV including Lighting, Sound, Video, Projection, and IT.

Experience in all aspects of productions.

Full UK Driving Licence is essential

You should be able to display that you regularly use your own initiative.

You should have experience of delivering a high quality service to all types of client's, have excellent client facing skills and good communication skills.

A good positive and happy attitude as well as a team player.

Ability to work long hours on events when required due to the nature of the events industry.

Ability to work under pressure and to resolve issues diplomatically and calmly.

You must have the capability to carry and lift AV equipment and staging from vehicles to venues.